

Work-based-learning

Not feeling ready for the next step? Hundreds have benefitted from a short time on one of these local programmes.

<https://www.enhamtrust.org.uk/> The Enham Trust Training and employment programmes that help disadvantaged people of all ages to take control of their lives and find success in finding work.

<https://www.enhamtrust.org.uk/skills2achieve> Skills to Achieve for young job seekers aged 16-19 currently not in education, employment or training.

<https://mpct.co.uk/> The Military Preparation College Designed specifically for 16-19 years old. The college equips you to make informed decisions in unfamiliar environments and situations. Fusing physical training, vocational instruction, academic work and personal development.

<http://princes-trust.org.uk/> The Prince's Trust programmes that aim to support young people back into education, employment or training through developing young people's personal and social development and enhance work skills.

<https://www.safe.org.uk/> Safe helps isolated and disadvantaged young people rethink their options and find new ways to move forward.

<https://activeforall.co.uk/> My Coaching delivers further education programmes to people aged between 15 and 19 years' old

<http://wheatsheaftrust.org/> Wheatsheaf Trust offers individualised mentoring support for young people aged 14 – 24 to access education, training and employment opportunities.